

供品祝辭 — Temple Offerings

玉皇頂 · Yuhuangding · Jade Emperor Summit, Mount Tai
Two offerings: Culture & Future (文) and Military & Frontier (武)

Offering 1 — 文 · Culture / Future

English

May culture grow like a tree on a mountain — slow, deep-rooted, visible to all. May knowledge belong to the commons, passed from generation to generation. May the gradual path of Development (Hexagram 53) let each person walk their own pilgrimage, and together become a forest. May ten thousand hectares of rainforest return, and the seeds of civilization take root in shade.

中文

願文化如樹，生於山上，根深葉茂，遠近皆見。
願知識為公，眾人之智，世代相傳。
願漸進之路，各人行各自之道，匯成森林。
願十萬公頃雨林復生，文明之種，落土成蔭。

Offering 2 — 武 · Military / Frontier / Guarding

English

May the blade guard the path and never harm the innocent. May the frontier stand firm against the strong maiden — the offer too good to be true that would steal our autonomy. May we keep our own pace of development, refusing what tempts and threatens. With strength we protect; with patience we grow.

中文

願劍鋒護道，不傷無辜。
願邊疆穩固，外邪不侵。
遇女壯則拒，守發展之節奏。
以武護文，以守護成。

文開路，武守路 — One opens the future, the other guards it.

Photo 1 — The signing of the offering at the summit

Photo 2 — The offering, written by hand

Photo 3 — Sealing the offering