

Zach Roth — Program Runner Brief

Aora × Agroverse Cacao Rainforest Adventure

Compiled by TrueSight DAO | July 2025

1. Profile Summary

Name: Zachary Roth

Current: Potrero Capital (US-based)

Location: United States

Key Background:

- Led the complete redesign and rebuild of PlayStation.com
- Certifications: PMP, Certified Scrum Master, CCNP, Master Project Manager
- Languages: English (native), Spanish (limited working)
- Volunteers tutoring ESL students from Mexico and Guatemala
- Active in Japan/Asia-focused events (FINOLAB, Asian Financial Forum)
- Has expressed openness to relocate to China long-term to run the program

2. What the Program Is

An immersive children's educational event — the Aora × Agroverse Cacao Rainforest Adventure — built as a configurable, replicable engine (TEDx-style, Mystic Manor-benchmarked).

- Audience: 10-15 families (parents + children aged 6-12)
- Timing: Mid-to-late July 2025 (pending confirmation)
- Location: Indoor venue in China
- Narrative: The program runner is the central character — the Guardian of the Cacao Rainforest. Children create their own Aora companion online, attend the event, and continue the story online after
- Format: ~90 minutes onsite — sensory exploration, a supply chain board game, chocolate-making workshop, and the Guardian's true story around a starlit campfire
- Long-term: After cacao, the same engine can be used for tea, honey, cotton, and other themes

3. What's Expected of the Program Runner

- Run the program as and when sessions take place
- Onsite facilitation — lead children through the experience as the central character

- Material management — teaching aids, props, Gift Set samples
- Quality control — maintain TEDx-level standards
- Coordination with Liz (TEDxSSL operator) and Teacher Evan (Educational Advisor)

4. Key Decisions Still Pending

#	Decision	Who Decides
1	Does Evan want someone on our side to run the program?	Evan
2	Budget for ongoing program operation	Evan
3	Jerri (Liz's team) or Zach as the runner?	Liz
4	Final program content sign-off	Dr Ye + Evan
5	July date confirmation (three-party)	Liz, Evan, program runner
6	Technical plan lock-in	Liz + supplier
7	Gift Set delivery timeline	Liz + Evan

5. Expenses & Relocation

Zach to assess his own cost of living for relocating to China and what he needs to live comfortably long-term.

If Evan wants someone on our side to run the program and has a budget for it, Zach's living expenses can be baked into the ongoing operating expenses.

6. Compensation

For time spent running programs, Zach will be compensated in TDG tokens via the DAO's standard contributor model. The exact rate per session will be determined once the budget and scope are finalized.

7. Next Steps

1. Clarify with Evan — does he want our-side staffing, and does he have a budget?
2. Zach to assess his own cost of living for China relocation
3. Liz to decide Jerri vs Zach
4. Finalize program content with Dr Ye and Evan
5. Confirm July date

6. Lock in technical plan
